My Old Kentucky Home State Park

Federal Hill was the inspiration for Stephen Foster's famous ballad, My Old Kentucky Home. Today, this Georgian-style mansion is as endearing to visitors as it was in 1852, the year Foster wrote what has become the official state song while visiting his cousins, the Rowan family. Step into the days of the antebellum South as costumed guides escort you through the stately mansion and formal gardens.

Golf: 18-hole regulation course with pro shop, rentals and carts.

Camping: 39-site campground with utility hookups, a central service building housing showers, restrooms and a dump station. Grocery store and laundry nearby. Reservations on-line or at 1-888-4KY-PARK.

Picnicking & Playground: Picnic area equipped with grills, a playground, restrooms and a picnic shelter.

Gift Shop: Features Kentucky handcrafts.

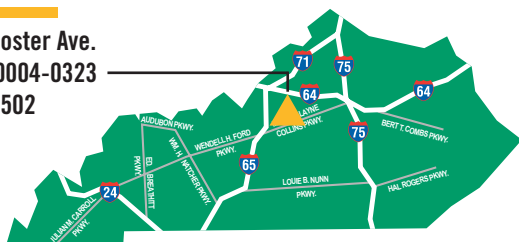

Visitor's Center: This building serves as the main entry point for visitors. Also available for weddings and receptions.

"Stephen Foster-The Musical": Experience the tradition of Kentucky's longest-running outdoor summer drama. This celebrated musical features colorful period costumes, lively choreography, and more than 50 Foster songs, including his most famous ballad, "My Old Kentucky Home." For more information and reservations call 800-626-1563.
